

Weekly Science Articles

Element	4	3	2	1
Mechanics	None to two grammatical, spelling or punctuation errors.	Three to four grammatical, spelling or punctuation errors.	Five to six grammatical, spelling or punctuation errors.	More than six grammatical, spelling or punctuation errors.
Structure	All responses are written in complete sentences, using appropriate stems.	All but one to two responses are written in complete sentences, using appropriate stems.	Three to half of the responses are not written in complete sentences.	More than half of the responses are not in complete sentences.
Accuracy	All responses provided correctly answer the questions asked.	All but one to two responses correctly answer the questions asked.	Three to half of the responses provided do not correctly answer the questions given.	More than half of the responses do not correctly answer the questions given.
Originality	All responses are composed in the student's own words.	One to two responses were copied directly from the article.	Three to five responses were copied directly from the article..	More than five responses were copied directly from the article.
Open Ended Response	Response is well constructed , consists of at least 4 complete sentences, and fully addresses the given prompt.	Response fully addresses the given prompt but is not well constructed and/or is less than 4 sentences.	Response partially addresses the given prompt.	Response does not address the given prompt.
Completion	Assignment is completed fully.	One to two required responses were not completed.	Three to half of the required responses were not completed.	More than half of the required responses were not completed.

Assignment grade: _____/24 = _____%